7. Disqualification for nomination to the Academic Committee and Executive Council in certain cases.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 20 or 23, no person who has held office as a member for a total period of six years in any one or both of the following authorities, namely:—

(i) the Academic Committee ; and

(ii) the Executive Council, shall be eligible for nomination to any of the said two authorities.

Explanation.—For the purpose of computing the total period of six years referred to in this sub-section, the period of three years during which a person held office in one authority and the period of three years during which such person held office in another authority shall be taken into account and accordingly, such person shall not be eligible, for nomination to anyone of the said two authorities :

Provided that for the purposes of this sub-section a person who had held office in any one of the said two authorities in a casual vacancy, shall be deemed to have held office for a period of three years in that authority :

Provided further that for the purposes of this sub-section if a person is nominated to one authority and such person becomes a member of another authority by virtue of the membership in the first mentioned authority, the period for which such person has held office in the first mentioned authority alone shall be taken into account.

[1984 மார்ச் 7]

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall have application in respect of—

(i) ex-officio members referred to in section 20 (a)—Class I, but not including members of the Executive Council who are not otherwise members of the Academic Committee referred to in item (7) thereof, and

(ii) ex-officio members referred in section 23(b)—Class I.

8. Visitation.—(1) The Chancellor shall have the right to cause an inspection or inquiry to be made by such person or persons, as he may direct, of the University, its buildings, University libraries, museum and equipments and of any institutions maintained or recognised by the University and also of the research, teaching and other work conducted or done by the University, and to cause an inquiry to be made in respect of any matter connected with the University. The Chancellor shall in every case give a notice to the University of his intention to cause such inspection or inquiry to be made and the University shall be entitled to be represented thereat.

(2) The Chancellor shall communicate to the Executive Council his views with reference to the results of such inspection or inquiry and may after ascertaining the opinion of the Executive Council thereon advise the University upon the action to be taken and fix a time limit for taking such action.

(3) The Executive Council shall report to the Chancellor the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken or has been taken upon the results of such inspection, or inquiry. Such report shall be submitted within such time as the Chancellor may direct.

(4) Where the Executive Council does not take to the satisfaction of the Chancellor, within the time limit as may be fixed under sub-section (2), the Chancellor may, after considering any explanation furnished or representation made by the Executive Council, issue such directions as he may think fit and the Executive Council shall comply with such directions. In the event of the Executive Council, not complying with such directions within such time as may be fixed in that behalf by the Chancellor, the Chancellor shall have power to appoint any person or body to comply with such directions and make such orders as may be necessary for the expenses thereof.

9. Officers of the University.—(1) The University shall consist of the following officers, namely:—

- (1) The Chancellor;

[1984 மார்ச் 7]

(4) A copy of every order passed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall, as soon as may be after it is so passed, be communicated to the person concerned in the manner prescribed.

42. Disputes as to constitution of University Authorities and Bodies.—If any question arises whether any person has been duly nominated as or is entitled to be a member of any authority of the University or other body of the University, the question shall be referred to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

43. Constitution of Committees.—All the authorities of the University have power to constitute or reconstitute committees and to delegate to them such of their powers as they deem fit. Such committees shall, save as otherwise provided, consist of members of the authority concerned and of such other persons, if any, as the authority in each case may think fit.

44. Power to obtain information.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Government may, by order in writing, call for any information from the University on any matter relating to the affairs of the University and the University shall, if such information is available with it, furnish the Government with such information within a reasonable period :

Provided that in the case of information which the University considers confidential, the University may place the same before the Pro-Chancellor.

45. Appointment of the first Vice-Chancellor.—Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 12, within three months from the 30th January 1984 the first Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Government on a salary to be fixed by them for a period not exceeding three years and on such other conditions as they think fit :

Provided that a person appointed as first Vice-Chancellor shall retire from office, if, during the term of her office, she completes the age of sixty-five years.

1984 மார்ச் 7]

46. Appointment of the first Registrar.—Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 14, within three months from the 30th January 1984 the first Registrar shall be appointed by the Government on a salary to be fixed by them, for a period not exceeding three years and on such other conditions as they think fit;

Provided that the person appointed as first Registrar shall retire from office, if, during the term of her office, she completes the age of fifty-eight years.

47. Transitory powers of the first Vice-Chancellor.—(1) It shall be the duty of the first Vice-Chancellor to make arrangements for constituting the Academic Committee, the Executive Council and such other authorities of the University within six months after the notified date or such longer period not exceeding one year after the expiry of the said period of six months, as the Government may, by notification, direct.

(2) The first Vice-Chancellor shall, in consultation with the Government, make such rules as may be necessary for the functioning of the University.

(3) The authorities constituted under sub-section (1) shall commence to exercise their functions on such date as the Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf.

(4) It shall be the duty of the first Vice-Chancellor to draft such statutes as may be necessary and submit them to the Executive Council for their disposal, such statutes when framed shall be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act and the statutes and until such time an authority is duly constituted, the first Vice-Chancellor may appoint any officer or constitute any committee temporarily to exercise and perform any of the powers and duties of such authority under this Act and the statutes. Any officer so appointed or any Committee so constituted in lieu of any other authority shall cease to hold office or function, as the case may be, immediately after such authority is duly constituted.

[1984 டிசம்பர் 7]

48. The Librarian.—(1) The Librarian shall be a whole-time officer of the University appointed by the Executive Council on the recommendation of the Selection Committee constituted for the purpose, for such period and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) The Librarian shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to her by the Executive Council.

49. Special mode of appointment.—(1) The Executive Council may invite a person of high academic distinction and professional attainment to accept a post of Senior Fellow in the University on such terms and conditions as it deems fit and on the person agreeing to do so, appoint her to the post.

(2) The Executive Council may appoint a teacher or any other member of the academic staff working in any other University or organisation for undertaking a joint project in accordance with the manner prescribed.

50. Power to amend the Schedule.—The Government may, by notification, alter, amend or add any statute to the Schedule and upon the issue of such notification, the Schedule shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

51. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises as to the first constitution or reconstitution of any authority of the University after the notified date or otherwise in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government, by notification, make such provision, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to them to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such notification shall be issued after the expiry of five years from the date of establishment of the University under section 3.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) or under any other provisions of this Act, shall, as soon as possible after it is issued be placed on the table of both Houses of the Legislature, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so placed or the next session, both Houses agree in making any modification in any such notification or both Houses agree that the notification should not be issued, the notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form, or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that notification.

52. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Tamil Nadu Women's University Ordinance, 1984 (Tamil Nadu Ordinance 5 of 1984) is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal anything done or any action taken under the said Ordinance shall be deemed to have been done or taken under this Act.
